

WRC Social Media Policy

This policy lists the social media the WRC currently uses, what you can expect on each from them, and how we interact with members of the public on these platforms.

Our use of social media platforms is not intended as a means of contacting our customer service division directly, or for submitting complaints or press queries.

To speak to one of our Information Officers please ring lo-call 1890 80 80 90 or contact us through our website.

The WRC is not responsible, liable for and does not endorse the privacy practices of any linked websites. Your use of social media websites is at your own risk. The WRC assumes no responsibility or liability for any injury, loss or damage incurred because of any use or reliance upon the information and material contained within or downloaded from these websites.

Twitter @WRC_ie

Staffing and origin of tweets

The @WRC_ie account is managed by the WRC Communications Unit. Tweets are posted by the staff of the unit.

Content

If you follow @WRC_ie, you can expect tweets to include:

- Information on employment, equality and equal status legislation
- Photos and videos from WRC events and events the WRC attends
- Press releases from the WRC
- Other content as deemed appropriate.

Following and Retweets

If we follow another Twitter account, it does not imply an endorsement of any kind. Likewise, content retweeted by @WRC_ie does not imply any endorsement of the message tweeted or the individual or organisation who tweeted it. If you follow our account, we will not automatically follow you back.

@Messages and Direct Messages

We welcome feedback from our followers and will try to join conversations where possible. However, we may not reply individually to all messages we receive via Twitter. The best means of communicating queries to the WRC is via our info-line 1890 80 80 90 or emailing contact us through our website.

Availability

We update and monitor our Twitter account during normal office hours Monday to Friday. We will also update and monitor the account outside of these hours at our own discretion.

Twitter may occasionally be unavailable, and we accept no responsibility for lack of service due to Twitter downtime.

LinkedIn

Staffing and origin of posts

The official WRC_ie LinkedIn profile is <https://www.linkedin.com/company/workplace-relations-commission/> . Content will always be posted by staff of the Communications Unit of the WRC.

If you have any questions about this social media policy, please contact 1890 80 80 90 or contact us through our website.
