

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS TRIBUNAL

CLAIM OF:
Employee

CASE NO.MN862/2007

against Employer

under

MINIMUM NOTICE AND TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT ACTS, 1973 TO 2001

I certify that the Tribunal
(Division of Tribunal)

Chairman: Mr D Hayes

Members: Ms J Winters
Mr J Moore

heard this claim at Navan on 1st May 2008

Representation:

Claimant: No appearance by or representation on behalf of the claimant

Respondent: O'Reilly & Co, Solicitors, 22 Ludlow Street, Navan, Co.Meath

The decision of the Tribunal was as follows:

There was no appearance by the above named claimant on the date allocated for hearing. The solicitor on record was contacted and confirmed that he would not be attending. The solicitor had no information as to the claimant's whereabouts. Therefore, the claim under Minimum Notice and Terms of Employment Acts, 1973 to 2001 fails for want of prosecution.

Sealed with the Seal of the Employment Appeals Tribunal

This _____

(Sgd.) _____
(CHAIRMAN)