The decision of the Tribunal was as follows:-

Determination

Determination

The appellant did not attend. The respondent's solicitor told the Tribunal that his client never employed the appellant who was in fact employed by a company Linley Taverns Limited. His client was formerly a director of Linley Taverns Limited but he disposed of his shares and no longer has any connection with that company. The solicitor made it clear he was not acting for Linley Taverns Limited, which is now controlled by other people.

It may be open to the appellant to present a claim against Linley Taverns Limited, but we dismiss the claim against the above named respondent.
