No appearance by Claimant C

Respondent: No appearance or representation

The decision of the Tribunal was as follows:

There was no appearance at the hearing by respondent. The Tribunal is satisfied that the respondent was on notice of the hearing. Having considered submissions from two of the appellants the Tribunal makes awards under the Minimum Notice and Terms of Employment Acts, 1973 to 2001 based according to the following schedule:

Name	Employment Started	Employment Ended	Gross Weekly Pay	Number of Weeks' Entitlement	Award under MN Acts
Claimant A	17 th Oct 2006	29 th Apr 2007	€332.00	One	€322.00
Claimant B	1 st January 2007	29 th April 2007	€332.00	One	€322.00

This award is not in addition to any award of minimum notice which may have been awarded by a Rights Commissioner under the Payment of Wages Act, 1991.

The claim of Claimant C, brought under the Minimum Notice and Terms of Employment Acts, 1973 to 2001, fails for want of prosecution.
