This case came before the Tribunal by way of an employee seeking to implement a recommendation of a Rights Commissioner, ref: (r-067748-ud-08/MMG).

The determination of the Tribunal was as follows:

There was no appearance by, or representation on behalf of, the named respondent.

The Tribunal decided that it did not have the power to order the implementation of the recommendation of the Rights Commissioner as the respondent was not a natural or legal person, and therefore, any implementation order would be null and void.
