This hearing came before the Tribunal by way of an appeal by the former employer against a decision by a Rights Commissioner reference number r-073056-pw-08/JC

The decision of the Tribunal was as follows:

The Tribunal is satisfied that the appellant was properly notified of this hearing. Neither this appellant nor a representative on its behalf appeared for the hearing.

The respondent or former employee of this company confirmed he had not received his compensation as stated in the decision of the Rights Commissioner.

In dismissing the appeal under the Payments of Wages Act, 1991 for lack of prosecution the Tribunal reaffirms the decision of the Rights Commissioner and awards the respondent €700.00 as compensation under that Act.
