Appellant: In Person
Respondent: Mr. Joseph Bolger, ESA Consultants, The Novum Building, Clonshaugh Industrial Estate, Dublin 17

Background

The respondent paid the appellant the sum of €7284.00 as a redundancy lump sum. This sum was calculated based on an incorrect start date. The appellant does not dispute that he received this sum of money, supporting documentation was provided to the Tribunal.

Determination

The Tribunal are satisfied that the appellant was entitled to a lump sum under the Redundancy Payments Acts, 1967 to 2007. The Tribunal understand that a sum of €7284.00 has been paid to the appellant. The Tribunal find that a sum of €888.00 is now due to the appellant to make up the appellant's full redundancy entitlement.
