This case came before the Tribunal by way of an employee seeking to implement the recommendation of a Rights Commissioner under the Unfair Dismissals Acts, 1977 to 2007, ref: r-112163-ud-11/JW.

The determination of the Tribunal was as follows:-

The Tribunal noted that the respondent named on the application form was different to that named on the Rights Commissioner recommendation referenced above. The Tribunal also noted that the name on the Rights Commissioner recommendation was different to the employer's name cited on the claimant's payslip.

Therefore, as there was an error on the face of the record the matter could not be proceeded with for implementation.
