This case came before the Tribunal by way of an employee seeking to implement a recommendation of a Rights Commissioner under the Unfair Dismissals Acts, 1977 to 2007, ref: r-099209-ud-10/JW.

The determination of the Tribunal was as follows:-

The Tribunal, having consulted the Companies Registration Office file on the internet, noted that the respondent company was dissolved prior to the Rights Commissioner hearing. The Tribunal also noted that the name cited in the Rights Commissioner recommendation was spelled incorrectly.

Therefore, as there was an error on the face of the record and the company was dissolved prior to the Rights Commissioner hearing the matter could not be proceeded with for implementation.
