(Proprietor/Manager/Company Secretary/Personnel Manager)
Note 1: NAME OF EMPLOYER — Employers must state their full and correct name. In the case of a limited company, the name of the company as registered with the Companies Registration Office should be given.

Note 2: ADDRESS OF EMPLOYER — A number of options are available under this heading. The intention is to ensure that the employee is given the full and accurate address of the employer. The options are as follows:

- The address in the State.
- The address of the principal place of the relevant business in the State (this could be appropriate in the case of a business which has a number of locations).
- The address of the registered office, i.e. address of the company as registered with the Companies Registration Office (within the meaning of the Companies Act 2014)

Note 3: RATE OF REMUNERATION/MEANS OF CALCULATING REMUNERATION — In addition to basic pay, this heading covers any other aspects of remuneration such as Sunday premium, bonus, commission, productivity incentives, etc. (If the employer does not give details of the rate of remuneration, he/she must give details of the method of calculating the remuneration). If appropriate, it could be stated that the rate is as set out in a specified Employment Regulation Order or Sectoral Employment Agreement. The following payments are regarded as wages:

- Normal basic pay (as well as any overtime);
- Sunday premium
- Shift allowances or other similar payments;
- Any fee, bonus or commission;
- Any holiday, sick or maternity pay;
- Any other return of payment for work (whether made under the contract of employment or otherwise), and;
- Any sum payable to an employee in lieu of notice of termination or employment

Sunday Premium: If not already included in the rate of pay, an employee is entitled to paid time off in lieu or a premium payment for Sunday working. If Sunday premium is already included in the rate of pay the amount attributable to Sunday premium should be clearly specified. An employee is entitled to the premium payment for Sunday working payable to a comparable employee in a collective agreement in force in a similar industry or sector. This means that the Sunday premium, if not already paid, will be equivalent to the closest applicable collective agreement which applies to the same or similar work under similar circumstances and which provides for a Sunday premium.

The premium can be in the form of:

- An allowance
- Increased rate of pay
- Paid time off
• Combination of the above.

The employer must indicate the pay reference period for the purposes of the National Minimum Wage Act, 2000. Also, the employer must state that the employee may request from the employer a written statement of the employee's average hourly rate of pay for any reference period falling within the previous 12 months as provided in Section 23 of the National Minimum Wage Act, 2000.
